Course Description (from the catalog)

Theory of aggregate demand and related topics: national income accounting, employment and inflation, monetary and fiscal policies, economic stability, growth and balance of payments equilibrium.

Course of Study: What You May Expect to Learn

- The economic way of thinking and a brief account of modern macroeconomics, including John Maynard Keynes's General Theory (1936), and the monetarist counter-revolution (Milton Friedman, et al.).
- Measures of output (GDP, GNP, and their components), the relationship between GDP per capita, the standard of living, and welfare, and how we calculate real variables from nominal variables using measures of price inflation.
- Economic growth, and the historical record of economic growth and development, particularly since the Industrial Revolution.
- Money, banking, and credit, and inflation/deflation.
- Business cycles (trade cycles), the history of the Great Depression, and the dynamic model of aggregate demand and aggregate supply to understand business fluctuations.
- Topics including the Phillips Curve, stabilization policy, government debt and budget deficits, the financial system and the financial crisis, monetary policy and fiscal policy, and the open economy

Required Texts/Readings

Required Text

I require just the one book for this course. We use N. Gregory Mankiw, Macroeconomics, either the 9th or 10th edition (New York: Worth, 2016/2019), which is available for purchase or rental, and at a discount as a used book. It is also available as an e-book with Launchpad, which you may find helpful but which I don't require you to use. Although the 7th edition (2010) is much cheaper, and the 8th edition (2013) is somewhat cheaper, the contents have been reordered and significantly revised.

We will work our way through Chapters 1-10, the dynamic model of aggregate demand and aggregate supply (taken from Cowen and Tabarrok's Modern Principles), topics in Chapters 14-20 (9th ed.)/Chapters 14-19 (10th ed.) (briefly), and the Epilogue.

Other Readings

I assign occasional supplementary readings and (short) videos on the web.

Classroom Protocol

Zoom attendance is not mandatory and will not directly affect a student's grade. However, students who miss Zoom sessions and do not keep up with the work will very likely consign themselves to doing poorly on their exams. I therefore strongly encourage students to attend fully every session.

Please note that the university is closed on Friday, July 3 (Independence Day observed) so our final exam is on Thursday, July 2.

Assignments and Grading Policy

There are two components to your grade: three exams (55%) and your fifteen best quizzes (45%).

The first exam (June 16/17) is worth 15%. The second exam (June 23/24) and the final comprehensive exam (Thursday, July 2) are each worth 20%. All three exams consist entirely of multiple choice questions.

There are at least twenty objective quizzes. Each quiz is worth three points, allowing students to drop or miss at least five quizzes. Quiz scores are calculated pro rata so that 10/10 on a quiz is worth three points, 9/10 is worth 2.7 points, and 5/10 is worth 1.5 points. Quizzes are based on my lectures and the textbook, except for one quiz that is based on a video. There are no make-ups for any quizzes.

Assignments and Grading Policy (cont'd)

Converting number grades to letter grades

95-100	A+	90-94	A	85-89	A-
80-84	B+	75-79	B	70-74	B-
65-69	C+	60-64	C	55-59	C-
50-54	D+	45-49	D	40-44	D-
		0-39	F

Although I expect to grade on a curve, I also take into account your absolute performance (as compared with your performance relative to other students) and, if everyone does first-rate work, I'd be delighted to award everyone an A.

I am happy to help you. If you experience any difficulty in this course, please do not hesitate to come to me for help. I am available not only during Zoom sessions but also by email and even a private Zoom session, and I am always happy to clarify difficult concepts, resolve any lingering confusion, or otherwise assist you in making this course enjoyable and rewarding.

Please expect to receive frequent emails to the address that you provided when you enrolled for this course. So notify me if you would prefer me to use a different email address.

Dropping and Adding

Students are responsible for understanding the policies and procedures about add/drop, grade forgiveness, etc. Refer to the current semester's Catalog Policies section at <http://info.sjsu.edu/static/catalog/policies.html>. Add/drop deadlines can be found on the current academic calendar web page at http://www.sjsu.edu/provost/academic\_affairs/resources/academic\_calendars/. The Late Drop Policy is available at <http://www.sjsu.edu/aars/policies/latedrops/policy/>. Students should be aware of the current deadlines and penalties for dropping classes.

Information about the latest changes and news is available at the Advising Hub at <http://www.sjsu.edu/advising/>.

Consent for Recording of Class and Public Sharing of Instructor Material

University Policy S12-7, <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S12-7.pdf>, requires students to obtain instructor's permission to record the course.

“Common courtesy and professional behavior dictate that you notify someone when you are recording him/her. You must obtain the instructor's permission to make audio or video recordings in this class. Such permission allows the recordings to be used for your private, study purposes only. The recordings are the intellectual property of the instructor; you have not been given any rights to reproduce or distribute the material.”

“Course material developed by the instructor is the intellectual property of the instructor and cannot be shared publicly without his/her approval. You may not publicly share or upload instructor generated material for this course such as exam questions, lecture notes, or homework solutions without instructor consent.”

University Policies (cont'd)

Academic integrity

Your commitment as a student to learning is evidenced by your enrollment at San Jose State University. The University's Academic Integrity policy, located at <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/F15-7.pdf>, requires you to be honest in all your academic course work. Faculty members are required to report all infractions to the office of Student Conduct and Ethical Development. The Student Conduct and Ethical Development website is available at <http://www.sjsu.edu/studentconduct/>.

Instances of academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. Cheating on exams or plagiarism (presenting the work of another as your own, or the use of another person's ideas without giving proper credit) will result in a failing grade and sanctions by the University. For this class, all assignments are to be completed by the individual student unless otherwise specified. If you would like to include your assignment or any material you have submitted, or plan to submit for another class, please note that SJSU's Academic Policy S07-2 requires approval of instructors.

Campus Policy in Compliance with the American Disabilities Act

If you need course adaptations or accommodations because of a disability, or if you need to make special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated, please make an appointment with me as soon as possible, or see me during office hours. Presidential Directive 97-03 at http://www.sjsu.edu/president/docs/directives/PD\_1997-03.pdf requires that students with disabilities requesting accommodations must register with the Accessible Education Center (AEC) at <http://www.sjsu.edu/aec/> to establish a record of their disability.
